The matching process: who is doing what

Part 1: AP and IB VAP employee

The matching process: who is doing what

Part 2: AP, IB VAP employee and PO

If the preliminary contract or the contract is terminated after it has been signed by the applicant, IB VAP is entitled to charge an administration fee.

IB VAP is entitled to terminate the preliminary contract or the contract in the case of serious reasons that speak against Voluntary Service.

The preparations for the Voluntary Service begin after the preliminary contract has been signed:

- The IB VAP team begins the matching process,
- the future volunteer begins the administrative preparations (if necessary: language course, new passport, flight booking, vaccinations, obligatory: first-aid course, internship, development of a support circle), and is advised and, if necessary, supported in this by the responsible contact person at IB VAP and/or an employee from the administration of IB VAP
- the ten-day preparation seminar takes place in July.

Between July and September, the volunteers depart to their host countries.
